

"Playing with Fire is simultaneously inviting and profound, accessible and aspirational. Bloomfield integrates classic Jewish texts into vignettes of her own life in ways that emerge as poetry for the heart and soul. Her love for Judaism and Israel becomes contagious for the reader. This book is a guide to all who seek out meaning and contemporary relevance in the study of Torah."

"Diane's passionate journey of Torah learning guides us into a systematic approach for exploring Torah's hidden meaning. Her clearly articulated "Rules of Play" provide steps, examples and building blocks that readers can emulate to discover many facets of Biblical text. Her book beautifully demonstrates how Hebrew knowledge is critical in understanding deeper meanings of Torah."

"Diane Bloomfield's gift is in finding the essence of a teaching and bringing it to us with elegant simplicity and pristine clarity, so that our understanding becomes broader and deeper. Her use of Hebrew is masterful as she brings to life hidden gems of the Jewish sages. Whether we are beginners in the study of Judaism or seasoned scholars, Diane gives us a fresh framework to understand key concepts in Torah in ways that are richly layered, and profound."

"From the dynamic encounters between her personal explorations and journeys, and the depths of chassidic texts, Diane has gifted us with passion and candour with a creative book of teachings where Sfat Emet and other masters illuminate inner worlds and point to dimensions of ultimate meaning. Very grateful for this unique contribution."
